CONTINUING EDUCATION HOURS

By attending ACE, you can earn up to 11 continuing education hours towards your Accredited Fiduciary (AF) recertification and/or state mandated continuing education requirements.

ACE HIGHLIGHTS

Education

ACE provides a multitude of educational offerings for its members at all levels of experience. These opportunities will help you develop the knowledge, skills, and ideas you need to better serve your fund or union, move forward in your professional development, and engage effectively with colleagues across the country and Canada. Click the "Agenda" button to view the current agenda.

Exhibit Hall

Check out our exhibitors and learn more about the service providers that support our industry and your pension plan.

Networking

Connect, share ideas and best practices with your colleagues and or clients at the conference. If this is your first time attending ACE, join us for our first timer meet and greet reception where you can mix and mingle with other first timers.

NCPERS is recognized as a learning provider and is an accredited sponsor of continuing education in several states.
