TEDS Agenda

During NCPERS' two-day educational program, TEDS helps trustees and plan staff build a solid foundation in governance, investing, and actuarial science. Whether you're new to a public pension plan board or looking for a refresher, this hands-on program focuses on practical strategies to ensure trustees can make informed decisions and enhance the performance of their pension funds. TEDS HIGHLIGHTS

Education

The TEDS curriculum was developed to build and strengthen the basic foundational knowledge of pensions and governance. Designed to address the educational needs of new and novice trustees, this program focuses on investing principles, understanding actuarial science, board policies, and fundamental concepts that every trustee should know. Click the "Agenda" button to view the current agenda.

Networking

Connect, share ideas and best practices with your colleagues and or clients at the conference. If this is your first time attending TEDS, join us for our President's Reception where you can mix and mingle with the NCPERS executive board and advisors.

NCPERS is recognized as a learning provider and is an accredited sponsor of continuing education in several states.
