Introduction to The Cortex Report

Welcome to The Cortex Report, a bi-monthly publication that has been customized for your board. The Cortex Report identifies various conferences, seminars, courses and other education events over the coming months that may be of value to trustees and staff.

Education events are sorted in chronological order, and include information such as event name, event sponsor/provider, date, topic areas, fees, and a general description. Each event listing also contains a link to the event sponsor's website. If you are interested in attending an education event, please be sure to check the sponsor's website for complete details.

Please also note the terms and conditions for use of this report at the end of the report.

LPs are increasingly looking to the private market to achieve returns, so portfolio construction and asset allocation, taking into account appropriate opportunities and risks, is paramount. The proliferation of new strategies and the entry of new GPs brings extra complexity navigating through this rapidly changing market. The program will feature asset owners and asset managers who will discuss:

- Benchmarking and measuring target returns
- Liquidity and premiums on the lack thereof
- Finding the right income-generating investments to provide a stream of capital
- Strategy conversations around private credit, infrastructure, real estate, real assets, etc. and how they all interact
- What performance statistics matter the most when assessing a partner and how to properly size your portfolio
- Dry powder and the balance of inflows with finding the right opportunities
- Secondary markets, direct and co-investing.

See the website for more information about the conference.

Topic Area: Pension Plan Policy

Attendance: Members Only

The Pension Research Council Symposium on Diversity, Inclusion, and Inequality: Implications for Retirement Income Security and Policy explores the determinants and dynamics of inequality in retirement income outcomes with an emphasis on inequality by race and ethnicity. Researchers will examine the role of housing wealth, pensions, and Social Security in reducing inequality. In addition, experts will evaluate inequality-mitigating effects of old-age public and private retirement saving programs policies. Although there has been a great deal of public emphasis on top 1% and 0.1% of wealth inequality, the conference aims to consider inequality for more representative people, excluding the highest wealth shares.

Organizer: National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems

End Date: May 18, 2025

Location: Denver, Colorado

Alternative Date(s) & Location(s) N/A

Difficulty: General

Topic Area: Board Governance

Attendance: Members Only

This seminar is held in conjunction with the Annual Conference and Exhibition. It is intended for new and novice trustees who are seeking a better understanding of their role and responsibilities as trustee of their pension fund. It also serves as a refresher for experienced trustees interested in staying up-to-date.

The program is designed with a clear focus on the educational needs of trustees who are relatively new to a pension plan board. The focus is on investing principles, board policies, and fundamental concepts that every trustee should know.

The second day of TEDS features the Asset Allocation Challenge, an interactive computer-based investment training exercise. Members are placed in groups and asked to select assets based on the given economic environment presented to them. This program is ideal for new trustees and can be repeated.

TEDS attendees can earn up to eight (9.5) hours of continuing education credits.

This is a trustee accreditation program specifically designed and tailored for individuals involved in public pension governance. It divides plan governance, oversight and administration into four modules. Each module delves into the fundamental components and strategies necessary for governing a public pension fund, allowing trustees and plan staff to walk away with the key competencies critical to their fiduciary responsibilities. The modules are offered two at a time (1&2 and 3&4), twice a year, and may be taken in any order. It is recommended that candidates first complete the Trustee Educational Seminar (TEDS).

Module 1 – Governance and the Board's Role
Module 2 – Investment and Finance
Module 3 – Legal, Risk Management and Communication
Module 4 – Human Capital

Conference : Private Equity Exclusive

Start Date: July 15, 2025

Organizer: Pension Bridge

End Date: July 17, 2025

Location: Chicago, Illinois

Alternative Date(s) & Location(s) N/A

Difficulty: Advanced

Topic Area: Investments

Attendance: Open To All

Pension Bridge provides exclusive events for senior executives within the institutional investment management industry. Bringing together over 400 attendees from North America's largest investors and global asset managers, this day and a half conference offers an intimate environment to strengthen relationships, knowledge sharing and networking, discuss market trends and challenges, and refresh your knowledge of the investment industry.

Seen as the darling of the investment community, private equity now faces significant headwinds globally. The outbreak of war in the Ukraine, rising inflationary pressure, and the threat of recession have provoked a massive reapproaching of spend. However, PE now has an opportunity to purchase distressed assets and tuck in and merge additional technology assets to make returns. This year we will explore these issues in depth, discussing the challenges the private equity industry has faced over the past 12 months, whilst offering an outlook on the trends that lie ahead.

Conference : Public Pension Funding Forum

Start Date: August 17, 2025

Organizer: National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems

End Date: August 19, 2025

Location: Chicago, Illinois

Alternative Date(s) & Location(s) N/A

Difficulty: General

Topic Area: Pension Plan Policy

Attendance: Open To All

The issue of pension funding gap, real or not, is often used to change pension plans as we know them. The most common solutions revolve around increasing employee and employer contributions, reducing benefits, and converting lifetime guarantee of defined benefit pensions into do it yourself pension schemes.

This forum will examine the obstacles that stand in the way of closing public pension funding gap and explore new solutions to overcome such obstacles, including better risk management in economic cycles, use of new and improved debt instruments, and closing tax loopholes.

Investors need assets that provide returns in a low-yield environment. Recent years have seen a major shift into private credit, strong interest in unconstrained fixed income, and growing interest in emerging markets and quant strategies. This conference will provide a survey of fixed income assets and strategies, and how they fit into a risk profile.

This event will survey the fixed income market from triple A to Z with thought leaders tackling the major questions that face investors as they look to get more out of their fixed income allocations.
